Narrative

On 6-12-09 at approx 1005 hrs I was working at the District 3 Staff Duty Desk. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] entered the station to report the theft of funds from a Girl Scout Troop.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have children in Girl Scout Troop 534. [REDACTED] is the [REDACTED] who collects money from cookie sales and deposits the funds into the Troop bank account. Troop 534 meets and raises money in Scottsdale.

[REDACTED] stated that she had deposited a large amount of money into the Troop account [REDACTED]. She was requesting $6700 from the account and was told there was not enough money to cover that amount. [REDACTED] stated that there should have been approx $11,000. She found out that several checks and numerous ATM withdrawals had been made by the sole signatory from the Troop, Trisha Proud. The bank would not provide any further information to [REDACTED]. The account is from Chase bank, [REDACTED]. Chase told [REDACTED] that they would not investigate the missing funds as the signatory was the one who withdrew the money.

[REDACTED] stated that they first became aware of the missing funds in March, 2009. She reported it to Trisha, and to the next supervisor in line, [REDACTED]. A meeting was held by the Troop on May 18, 2009, to discuss the missing money and to give Trisha the opportunity to repay the money. Trisha did not show up to the meeting. [REDACTED] reported that [REDACTED] told her she would file a report with police but no report could be found in Scottsdale or in Phoenix, where the Troop's parent council is located. DET Anderson #828 was able to contact [REDACTED] reference this incident, please see his supplement for further.

A check of Trisha's history showed an outstanding warrant for her arrest. She was not contacted before the completion of this supplement pending an attempt to contact her on that subject.

This ended my involvement in the matter.
